I TEXT, THEREFORE I AM.

“Yeah, I could go a day without texting. For real. But, like, why would I ever want to?”

It'd be like a day without friends: BORING! So it's good that I've got the best way to text right here in my pocket—LG Exchange with its 4-line slide-out QWERTY keyboard. Cuz when you send 100 texts a day, you gotta do it right...and quick. People count on hearing from me daily, so, why should I disappoint them?

But when I'm not texting, I'm hanging out with friends and looking great. And just like me my phone does both! Pix, music, keyboard, touchscreen, mobile web (oh, plus it accepts calls from my parents). And does it look good with my favorite pair of jeans? You know it. Believe me, I never leave home without it.”

Go Quick. Go QWERTY

When I've got something to do, I love my touchscreen. But something to say? Nothing can beat a real keyboard—and even better, a red hot one!

Tap, Touch & Slide

I love rocking out to my favorite songs while my fingers dance around my touchscreen? So handy, and fun too!

My Friends = My Life.

It makes me really sad when I can't find my favorite people. But with this phone's super-smart contact system, it's all friends and no worries.

All Together Now

Forget searching through a jillion texts—bubble-threaded messaging keeps all my convos organized in cute speech balloons.

Ready, Set, Snap!

I love taking pix, but carrying a camera? No way. But hey, with the Exchange? Problem solved. Pic messages, facebook, my memories—it's all good.
